

Let's Talk At More Length About Unfair Suffering<sup>1</sup>

1 Peter 3:13–17

A facetious question! The expected answer: lots of people!

<sup>13</sup> Now who is there to harm you if you are zealous for what is good?

You may suffer! You will be blessed!

<sup>14</sup> But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed.

The proper attitude:

Have no fear of them,
nor be troubled,

Why should a follower of Christ
have no fear when it seems like the whole world is against us?

The best preparation:

<sup>15</sup> but in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy,
always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you;

What is the hope we have in us?

APOLOGIA: to speak on behalf of oneself or of others against accusations presumed to be false; to defend oneself, to prove one's innocence.

An acceptable demeanor:
yet do it with gentleness and respect,

PRAUTAYS: gentleness of attitude and behavior in contrast to harshness. See EP 4:2.
PHOBOS: profound respect.
In other contexts, fear.

No skeletons!

<sup>16</sup> having a good conscience,
so that, when you are slandered,
those who revile your good behavior in Christ
may be put to shame.

Our conscience is the voice within.

In conclusion:

<sup>17</sup> For it is better to suffer for doing good,
if that should be God's will,
than for doing evil.

Where have we seen God's will mentioned in Peter before? See 2:9, 15, 21.

Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. <sup>13</sup> But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. 1 Peter 4:12–13

The question for all of us who are Christ's followers is, are we ready?
